

Goals of the American Indian Heritage Month Celebration

To promote, educate and heighten the positive history, heritage and cultural arts of American Indians of North Carolina.

To bring about a greater awareness of the presence of more than 100,000 American Indians in North Carolina today and to raise awareness of the various tribes indigenous to our state.

To showcase the various forms of art produced by tribal artists in the state by providing an opportunity to demonstrate their craft.

For further information, please contact Kerry

Altn: Kerry D. Bird
1317 Mail Service Center
Raleigh, NC 27699-1317

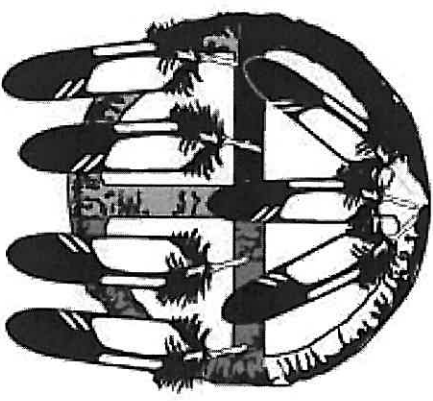

Phone: 919.807.4447
Fax: 919.807.4461
E-mail: kerry.bird@doa.nc.gov

American Indian Heritage Month Celebration

November 21, 2009
11:00 am—4:00 pm

N. C. Museum of History
Raleigh, NC

Sponsorship Opportunities

North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs

American Indian Heritage Month Celebration

The North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs and the North Carolina Museum of History are pleased to announce the 2009 American Indian Heritage Month Celebration honoring November's designation as Indian Heritage Month.

Activities & Events

- More than 100 dancers will perform, including women and men traditional dancers, men fancy dancers, women jingle and shawl dancers, men grass dancers, and many children representing North Carolina American Indian tribes and organizations.
- Other activities include the host drum, flute music, and special guest speakers.
- Approximately 15-30 arts and crafts demonstrators will be set up as well as food vendors selling traditional native foods such as corn, sweet potato bread, Indian fry bread and Indian tacos.

Sponsorship Levels

Eagle ($1,000 or more)

- Full page advertisement in program book
- In the Heart of Tradition DVD on North Carolina American Indians
- Your organization/company name will appear on all press releases
- Special gift of recognition

Hawk ($500—$999)

- 1/2 page advertisement in program book
- In the Heart of Tradition DVD on North Carolina American Indians
- Special gift of recognition

Raven ($250—$499)

- 1/4 page advertisement in program book
- In the Heart of Tradition DVD on North Carolina American Indians

Hummingbird ($50—$249)

- Your organization/company/individual name will be printed on the Corporate Sponsorship page included in the program book.

Please consider supporting this event and celebrating the culture of the Native people of North Carolina. Contributions should be made payable to:

NCMOH—Education Program Fund

N.C. Museum of History
Attention: Emily Grant
4650 Mail Service Center
Raleigh, NC 27699-4650
Phone: 919-807-7900

N.C. Museum of History is serving as the Fiscal Agent for this event.*

We look forward to your support to make November 2009 Indian Heritage Month a huge success.

For further information, please contact Kerry Bird at:

NC Commission of Indian Affairs
Attn: Kerry D. Bird
1317 Mail Service Center
Raleigh, NC 27699-1317
Phone: 919.807.4447
Fax: 919.807.4461
Email: kerry.bird@doa.nc.gov

