

Teaching Resources

Avoiding American Indian Stereotypes

Advice from an American Indian teacher

(<http://www.ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/AI/Stereotypes.htm>)

Civil War Army Organization and Rank

Explanation of the six basic army units and the ranks and responsibilities of soldiers

(http://ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/CW2/orgrank_hndout.htm)

Civil War Battles Fought in North Carolina

Brief summaries of the twenty battles fought in the state

(http://ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/CW2/battles_hndout.htm)

FAQs: North Carolina and the Civil War

List of the Museum of History's most frequently asked questions about the Civil War

(http://ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/CW2/faqs_hndout.htm)

Military Expressions

That Originated in World War II—list of terms soldiers used in World War II

(<http://www.ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/WWII/MilitaryTerms.htm>)

North Carolina Civil War Genealogical Resources

List of archives, books, and Web sites containing genealogical information

(http://ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/CW2/genealogy_hndout.htm)

Civil War Generals Appointed by North Carolina

List of Confederate generals appointed by North Carolina

(http://ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/CW2/generals_hndout.htm)

The Trail of Tears: A Summary

Brief history of the Trail of Tears, with tips on teaching this topic

(<http://www.ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/AI/TrailofTears.htm>)

American Indians in North Carolina: Tribal Information

Information from the workshop introduction about state-recognized tribes and tribal organizations

(<http://www.ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/AI/TribalInfo.htm>)

World War II Figures and Facts for North Carolina

Lists of military installations, casualty figures, and more

(<http://www.ncmuseumofhistory.org/workshops/WWII/WWIIIFigures.htm>)

